Wells Fargo Bank

DIVERSITY PILLAR

Wells Fargo & Company is a diversified financial services company with $1.3 trillion in assets, providing banking, insurance, investments, mortgage and consumer finance through more than 10,400 stores, over 12,000 ATMs and the internet (wellsfargo.com) across North America and internationally.

The Company works with thousands of communities across North America to promote economic self-sufficiency, education, social services, the arts and the environment. Wells Fargo is one of America's largest financial contributors to communities. Even during the 2008 economic downturn, Wells Fargo increased its giving to nonprofits by 5% to $226 million. Team members from across the Company give of their time, talents and money. Just last year, team members volunteered 1.4 million hours, contributed $39.3 million to nonprofits during the annual Community Support/United Way Campaign and serve on 16,000 boards of directors.

Wells Fargo seeks to integrate environmental stewardship into its operations, business practices and culture and became one of the first companies to earn U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED®) Silver volume pre-certification for both New Construction and Commercial Interiors.
